

YOUR 7 DAY ISLAND TRIP OF DISCOVERY

★ TASMANIA ★

DAY 1 Arrive Hobart

Drive to the top of Mt Wellington for spectacular views over the city. Catch the Mona Roma 1 Fast Ferry to Mona, Museum of Old and New Art, arguably one of the most controversial private collections of modern art and antiquities in the world. Have lunch at either the Source Restaurant or the Wine Bar. Be sure to check out the Moo Brew microbrewery and Moorilla wine cellar while you're there. Once back in Hobart, drop into Lark Distillery to sample some of the world's best single malt whiskey. Dinner is at T42 on Hobart's Waterfront.

Retire to your accommodation at the The Old Woolstore.

DAY 2 Hobart to Port Arthur

Meet some Tasmanian locals at Bonorong Wildlife Sanctuary, including Tasmanian devils and Eastern Spotted Quolls. Stop by some of the many vineyards on the Coal Valley wine route as you head towards historic Richmond village.

Bangor Wine and Oyster Shed

Continue south, having lunch at Bangor Wine & Oyster Shed near the picturesque fishing village of Dunalley. Spend the afternoon delving into stories of Tasmania's convict past at the Port Arthur Historic Site. The adventurous can opt to do an evening Ghost Tour or Paranormal Investigation Tour, to see a very different side of this UNESCO World Heritage Listed convict site. Dine at either Felon's Bistro or Gabriel's restaurants.

Overnight Stewart's Bay Lodge

DAY 3 Port Arthur to Freycinet Peninsula

Drive to the East Coast in time to jump aboard the Wineglass Bay Cruise. Alternatively, explore the Freycinet National Park by kayak, quad bike, and scenic flight or by walking to Wineglass Bay Lookout. In the evening do a twilight kayak tour or Bicheno Penguin Tour.

For a more indulgent experience, stay at Saffire Freycinet and entrust your stay in the Freycinet with one of the many signature experiences offered exclusively to house guests.

Overnight at Freycinet Lodge or Saffire

Cradle Mountain

DAY 4

Freycinet Peninsula to Launceston

Continue your journey north towards Launceston, sampling local produce as you go. Graze as you travel, making stops at Iron House microbrewery, Pyengana Dairy, Bridestowe Lavender or the many cellar doors throughout the Tamar Valley Wine Route.

For the avid golfers, Barnbogle Dunes & the Lost Farm are among the best public links courses in Australia, offering breathtaking views over rugged Bass Strait. There is also a day spa for those more interested in indulging in comfort. Finish the day with wine tasting at Josef Chromy Wines. Dinner at Black Cow restaurant.

Overnight at the Sebel Launceston.

DAY 5

Launceston to Cradle Mountain

Check out the crafty town of Deloraine, known for its artisan goods. Nearby Mole Creek Caves is definitely worth a visit, as is the Melita Honey Farm. Have lunch where the chefs eat at T's Chinese Restaurant in Sheffield, a town famous for its murals. Explore the Cradle Valley by foot on one of the numerous short walks, including the Dove Lake Circuit walk.

Alternatively experience Cradle Mountain by quad bike, horseback or by air with a scenic helicopter flight. The adventurous can get their adrenaline pumping with Cradle Mountain Canyons. Dine at the Highland Restaurant.

Finish the day relaxing by the fire in your cabin accommodation at Peppers Cradle Mountain Lodge or indulge in the Waldheim Alpine Spa.

Bridestowe Lavendar Estate

DAY 6

Northern Tasmania

Sample some of Tasmania's finest produce along the Cradle to Coast Tasting Trail, including salmon, berries, chocolate, cheese, wine and whisky to name a few. Have lunch at Pier 01 in Ulverstone.

Spend the afternoon taking in the surrounds at the immaculate Quamby Estate, where you'll stay the night.

DAY 7

Northern Tasmania to Launceston

Spend the morning exploring the towns of Perth, Longford and Evandale. Learn more about Tasmania's convict history at Brickendon and Woolmer's Estates, including the National Rose Garden. In Launceston, stop into the Tasmanian Design Centre and Cataract Gorge.

Enjoy wine tasting at Josef Chromy Wines before departing from the nearby Launceston Airport.
